DESCRIPTION

From the engineers of the world's first selectorized Smith Machine, comes the newest breakthrough in home gyms. Introducing the Inspire Series FT2 PRO Smith Functional Trainer by Centr. This versatile machine maximizes space by combining Inspire's patented Smith bar technology with our industry-defining functional trainer in a walk-in design to deliver a modern and efficient gym unlike any other. It is designed to target every muscle group, with 6 total pulleys, an integrated Smith bar, adjustable pull up bar, rock climbing grips and a total of 13 included attachments along with storage space for free weights. Crafted for those who demand excellence, this revolutionary trainer is built with Inspire's engineering excellence and Centr's fitness expertise.

The FT2 PRO is made with commercial-grade components boosting safety and durability and showcases our frictionless pulley system that allows for smooth dynamic movements. The 11-gauge steel frame hosts 2 wide, adjustable pulleys with 40 different vertical positions, 2 upper pulleys and 2 adjustable mid-to-low pulleys with a unique one-hand adjustment into 6 different positions to perform rows, belted squats and more. The patented Smith bar is fully integrated into the weight stacks and counter-balanced for effortless transitions between exercises. Built with two 165lb weight stacks the FT2 PRO's unique weight multiplier system allows you to double the resistance on the Smith Bar (up to 350 lbs) for more intense workouts. It also comes with 6 shelves to store dumbbells, kettlebells and more in this compact machine.

Pair the FT2 PRO with the Inspire Series FID7 PRO Workout Bench and the Inspire Leg Kit and Attachment which fully integrates into the weight stacks for leg curls and extensions. Bench and attachments sold separately.

Delivering unparalleled quality and versatility, this is the last strength training solution you'll ever need. And with a free membership to the Centr app included ($79.99 value), you get personal coaching from Chris Hemsworth's team of trainers to guide you into your next era of fitness.

Build your strongest self with the Inspire Series FT2 PRO Smith Functional Trainer – the pinnacle of fitness innovation.
